If you've been to Kaka'ako lately, you know something exciting is happening.

You can see it in the district's dynamic outdoor murals, created by local and international artists. You can feel the energy from young entrepreneurs working in collaborative spaces within Kaka'ako. You can hear it in the music and laughter floating out from Eat the Street, the Night Market and other unique cultural events. You can taste it in Kaka'ako's chef-led eateries, and bring it home from galleries and shops that showcase creations found nowhere else on the island.

And very soon, you will be able to call this magnificent place your home at 400 Keawe – the epicenter of Kaka'ako's nine-block reimagination. A different and comfortable 6-story condominium experience by Castle & Cooke Homes Hawaii, 400 Keawe shares a deeply personal vision of what life in the 808 should be: Dynamic. Welcoming. Authentic. A unique low-rise condo in the heart of Kaka'ako

Honolulu's new urban core is:

Social. Designed to bring together a diverse and vibrant community of residents, Our Kaka'ako will be centered around open plazas, sidewalk cafes, and other places to gather, swap ideas, talk story and live aloha.

Sustainable. "Complete streets" allow pedestrians, bicycles, cars and mass transit to move in harmony. A progressively planned, mixed-use district with wide, shaded sidewalks and green spaces encourages long-term community.

Central. Living five to ten minutes from downtown, the waterfront, the beach, the Ward shopping district, and Ala Moana Center means that you spend less time driving and more time doing.
